ARE YOU FAT?

Do you find your friends often make comments on your weight? Is your diet full of foods with too much saturated fats? Act now! Don't wait a minute! Start on this new weight reducing diet now. You are guaranteed to feel better, look better, and lose weight fast.

Suggested diet:

Breakfast: $\frac{1}{2}$ cup combination lemon and sauerkraut juice.

$\frac{1}{4}$ cup of Snicker Snacks (dry)
 $\frac{1}{4}$ slice of toasted cinnamon bread

Dinner: The large meal of the day

$\frac{1}{2}$ oz. raw Black Walrus meat
(recommended taken from $\frac{1}{2}$ in. directly below the left ear)

$\frac{1}{4}$ cup milk
($\frac{1}{4}$ goat milk from the Alps
 $\frac{1}{4}$ camel milk from the southern half of Arabia)

At this time it is recommended you run down to the Colosseum and take three laps around the arena carrying ten pounds of potatoes on your head. After this invigorating exercise, you will be very hungry for supper. You run from the Colosseum to the Forum where you turn in the potatoes and get your money back. Use this money to buy a chariot which you take outside Rome to get a 1 oz. portion of the upper left auricle of the heart of a middleaged alligator. You catch the alligator of course using the usual materials: a boring book, a telescope, a match box, and a pair of tweezers. After getting this, take the chariot back to your house and cook the meat at a temperature of $76\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ F. (this has to be exact) for 2 minutes 37 seconds.

After this you cut it in two and eat the right half. You save the left half for breakfast the next morning. (A bonus for your good work) You continue this for two months and if you don't lose any weight in that time, you had better give up.

Are your togas coming apart at the seams? Mine are, too, so let's all hurry down to Linda K's Men's and Women's Apparel before the guards pick us up. Yes, Linda K. has all the latest summer creations. You'd better hurry, though, they're going fast. You know where you'll be without them, in the torture room, that's where!
